

You are invited

Public Safety in Indian Country– PL 280 and Working Solutions between Tribes and Local/State Partners Conference

A one-day conference on Public Law 280 and working solutions between Tribes and Local/State partners.

Local government leaders, law enforcement, and tribal representatives in the northern California region are invited to attend. This conference will provide valuable information on Public Law 280, as well as the operation of tribal justice systems and cooperative relationships between tribal and non-tribal communities.

There is no cost to attend, and lunch will be provided.

Wednesday, June 24th
9AM to 5PM
@ River Lodge
1800 Riverwalk Dr
Fortuna, CA 95540

Hosted by:

California Indian Legal Services
324 F Street, Eureka, CA 95501

RSVP AT: lsvoboda@calindian.org
(707) 443-8397

